STUDY AND SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TOKYO – IME

The International Multidisciplinary Engineering Graduate Program (IME) at The University of Tokyo offers international students opportunities to pursue a Master of Engineering or Doctor of Engineering degree in a range of engineering fields. The programme is designed for non-Japanese applicants.

Fields include Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering and Information Systems, Materials Engineering, Aeronautics and Astronautics, Chemical System Engineering, Precision Engineering, and Bioengineering for the doctoral course.

For the September application round for October 2027 enrollment, applicants are automatically considered for three IME Graduate Program scholarship categories: MEXT, the University of Tokyo Scholarship, and the Graduate School of Engineering Scholarship. This announcement focuses on the non-MEXT opportunities.

Registration closes on 7 October 2026 at 15:00 JST, while the complete online application, including recommendation letters and examination-fee payment, closes on 14 October 2026 at 15:00 JST.

Deadline: Registration: 7 October 2026, 15:00 JST; Online application: 14 October 2026, 15:00 JST
